Call for Expressions of Interest 2020 Skate Canada Board of Directors

Skate Canada, the national sport organization for figure and synchronized skating in Canada, is currently seeking interested individuals to serve on the Board of Directors commencing May 2020.

A not-for-profit organization with over a hundred years of history, Skate Canada serves a membership of over 188,000 registrants and is the largest learn-to-skate teaching organization in Canada with 5,800 professionally qualified coaching members. It is dedicated to creating a nation of both recreational and competitive skaters.

Skate Canada is a grassroots organization with 1,100 Canadian skating clubs of all sizes, including over 10,000 supporting volunteers. Skate Canada has the structure to grow and champion athletes from the learn-to-skate levels all the way up to the elite athletes representing Canada at international and Olympic competitions.

The Skate Canada Board, comprised of an elected president and up to twelve directors, is accountable to the association's membership for providing competent, conscientious and effective fulfillment of the Board's three primary roles – setting direction, strategic planning, and monitoring and evaluation.
